

'Laurier for the West'--Alberta's Slogan

Delegates Renew Fealty at Enthusiastic Conference in Winnipeg-- Perfect Unanimity

Two Hundred And Fifty Attend Meeting In Fort Garry Hotel. President Over By Mayor Henry--Hon. A. G. MacKay Strikes Keynote, "One General And That General, Laurier"--Premier Sifton, Hon. Frank Oliver, Hon. C. W. Cross, Hon. Duncan Marshall, Hon. J. R. Boyle, Hon. Wilfrid Gariepy And Others Speak--Dr. Clark, W. A. Buchanan And James Douglas, Members Of Federal House, Explain Their Position.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WINNIPEG, Man., Aug. 6.—Alberta Liberals through their delegates to the great convention which opens Tuesday morning have already declared themselves with no uncertain sound and with a unanimity as gratifying as complete on the one important question of leadership. They are solidly for Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

At a meeting in the Fort Garry this afternoon attended by 250 delegates and presided over by Mayor Henry of Edmonton, the Alberta men with three ladies, Mrs. Kneil, Edmonton, and Mrs. Carvith and Mrs. Davidson, of Calgary, gathered preliminary to the convention proper. It developed into a remarkably enthusiastic demonstration for Sir Wilfrid Laurier and for his western lieutenant, Hon. Frank Oliver, who was present and whose entrance was the signal for an ovation which by its warmth and spontaneity obviously embarrassed its recipient.

No "Doubting Thomases."

There may have been some few "Doubting Thomases" in the Alberta delegation before this afternoon's meeting. There were none afterwards. Every mention of the name of Sir Wilfrid and Mr. Oliver was the signal for a fresh outburst of cheers.

The keynote of the meeting was struck by Hon. A. G. MacKay, who declared that Liberals in the forthcoming battle wanted one general and that general, Sir Wilfrid.

On the platform were Premier Sifton, Hon. Frank Oliver, Jas. Douglas, M.P., Dr. Michael Clark, M.P., W. A. Buchanan, M.P., Hon. C. W. Cross, Hon. J. R. Boyle, Hon. Duncan Marshall, Hon. Wilfrid Gariepy and a number of the other members of the legislature.

The premier explained briefly the purpose of the meeting and spoke of the events leading up to the calling of the convention, the precise person responsible for which he did not know.

Calls For "Oliver."

Immediately after Mr. Sifton's speech there were calls from all parts of the hall for "Oliver," who responded expressing his gratification on the splendid delegation of men and women who had been willing to travel the thousand miles to attend the convention, thus signifying their deep interest in and concern for the welfare of the country in this time of crisis, not only in national but also in world affairs.

Hon. C. W. Cross spoke briefly stating his position as unalterably opposed to the Borden government and strong for Sir Wilfrid Laurier as Liberal leader.

Hon. Duncan Marshall criticized the Borden administration for its failure to adopt vigorous and effective means of increasing production of food stuffs and prohibiting Canadian millers from milling white flour.

All Express Confidence.

Other addresses, all expressing confidence for the future of Liberalism, were given by Messrs. Boyle and Gariepy and the following members-elect of the legislature: A. G. MacKay, Geo. P. Smith, J. G. Turgeon, Martin Woolf and W. A. Rae.

The three ladies present also each spoke briefly, as did Dr. Clark, W. A. Buchanan and Jas. Douglas, the three Alberta Federal members who voted for conscription. They each declared they were still Liberals and explained that they had voted as they did from honest motives.

Following the lead set by Alberta, the delegates from Saskatchewan and Manitoba each met separately later in the day.

PRO TEM PASTOR TOLD TO GET OUT OF MOOSE JAW

Reported To Have Said Great Britain Was Responsible For The War.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

MOOSE JAW, Sask., Aug. 6.—As a result of the statements made in his sermon at St. Andrew's Presbyterian church last evening, Rev. Mr. Harley, of Paducah, Ky., who is substituting in the pulpit during the holidays of Rev. W. G. Wilson, pastor of the church, will be officially asked by Mayor Davidson to shake the dust of Moose Jaw from his feet as soon as possible.

Rev. Harley is reported as saying in his sermon that Great Britain was responsible for the war, because, when Russia was remonstrating with Austria for threatening to murder Serbia, she undertook to remain neutral. He also said that the United States was greater than Britain because she stayed out of the war longer, and concluded by a statement that the time would come when all of North America would be under one flag. Rev. Harley did not say what flag, and many in the audience thought he meant the Stars and Stripes. One objector, however, says he thought he meant the Union Jack, for otherwise the preacher would have been guilty of astounding and colossal impudence. At any rate, after the service a committee composed of Mrs. Ida Hale, G. Wilson and W. Switzer, the latter two Winnipeg travellers, called upon Mayor Davidson and asked to have Mr. Harley interned. The mayor today intimated that he would ask Reverend Harley to get out of Moose Jaw at once. He is scheduled to preach at St. Andrew's next Sunday.

KING ALEXANDER TAKES OATH

ATHENS, Aug. 5.—King Alexander of Greece, today took the oath of office amid great pomp and ceremony. Preceded by a troop of soldiers the king, in a carriage drawn by four horses, proceeded from the palace to the hall of the chamber of deputies through the streets lined with cheering citizens.

The king wore the white uniform of a general, with numerous decorations. As he remained standing to take the oath, Premier Venizelos was at his right and the president of the chamber at his left.

HINDENBURG BOMBASTES

BERLIN, Aug. 6.—(Via London)—Field Marshal von Hindenburg in a telegram to the imperial German chancellor on the occasion of the fourth anniversary of the war, says:

"Firmly consolidated in the interior and unshaken on all the frontiers Germany has withstood the exasperating thrusts of her ancient and her new enemies. The German army is fighting far in the enemy's country and is marching with unbroken strength. We are as firm as a rock; our home spirit and united perseverance will remain alive, which is a guarantee of victory and of an honorable peace to our nation."

F. M. BLACK AND MISS M'ISAACS ON FOOD BOARD

Special Committee For Province—J. H. Lamb Returning From Ottawa.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 6.—J. H. Lamb, Alberta's representative in the advisory committee to the Dominion food controller, is in Winnipeg on his way home from the conference at Ottawa. He will probably give a full report at the meeting called by the consumers league to consider the question of food conservation next week.

Mr. Lamb has been asked to furnish the central office with a name of information on local conditions affecting food production and conservation.

It is also understood that a committee on food nutrition and public health for this province has been named, consisting of F. M. Black, Edmonton; E. J. Fream, of the U. F. A.; President Marnoch, Lethbridge board of trade, and Miss McIsaac, Edmonton.

U. S. WAR TAX BILL

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—The war tax bill finally revised to meet latest estimates was favorably reported today by the senate finance committee. It proposes to raise $2,000,790,000 by taxation.

FOUR PREMIERS OF WEST SPEAK TO DELEGATES

Convention Reception In Royal Alexandra Hotel, Winnipeg.

NOTABLE TRIBUTE TO HON. F. OLIVER

Premier Martin Says Gath'ring Presages Sweeping Liberal Victory.

(Special to The Bulletin)

WINNIPEG, Aug. 6.—At the reception tendered to the four western premiers tonight at the Royal Alexandra hotel, the large ball room was crowded to the doors and the demonstration in favor of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. Frank Oliver, which originated at the Alberta meeting in the afternoon, was renewed with increased vigor. Mr. Oliver came into the room while one of the premiers was giving his address and was greeted with rounds of applause which continued for several minutes and which could leave no room for doubt in the minds of any spectators as to the place which he holds in the estimation of the great body of Liberals in the west.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

WINNIPEG, Aug. 6.—Four Liberal premiers of the four western provinces of Canada were here tonight at the Royal Alexandra hotel an audience of upwards of eight hundred men and women, delegates to the convention of western Liberals, which opens its sessions Tuesday morning.

There was little mention of politics in the speeches, which were jocular and reminiscent. Speakers pointed out that never before had the west met together under such circumstances. Ladies present as delegates and visitors were complimented on their interest in their new duties of citizenship.

John Stovel, of Winnipeg, chairman of the committee on arrangements, presided, and on the platform, in addition to the premiers, were Senator Watson, Senator Ross, Hon. Frank Oliver, Senator Prince, W. E. Knowles, M.P., and Levi Thompson, M.P.

Common Purpose—Common Ground.

Hon. T. C. Norris, premier of Manitoba, declared the present was the first time the four western provinces had gathered for a common purpose. "We have," he said, "common ground on which to stand."

Premier Martin of Saskatchewan, said the west had been compared to the tail of the dog, but the time had

WAR UNTIL HUNS' DREAM FADES PLAN OF ALLIES

Have Come To Agreement As To Remodelling Of Europe's Map.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—A news agency dispatch from Washington today says:

"The allies have come to a full agreement as to the remodelling of Europe's map after the war."

"A sketch, showing the peace aims of these countries, was seen today at one of the allied embassies."

"Taking territory here, straightening lines there, they intend to have such restorations as will tend toward international peace in the future. While Germany dreams of a 'Middle Europe'—Middle Europe running from the North Sea to Bagdad under Teuton domination—the allies have agreed the war shall go on until this dream vanishes."

"First in the allies' proposals is the restoration of Belgium. France, according to plans, is to have Alsace-Lorraine. Constantinople will be internationalized, and one Turkish province's grasp on Europe loosened. "The Grecian boundary will be shoved northward, while Greece will also get some of the islands near her in the Mediterranean."

"Italy will have Trent and Trieste, some straightening of her northern boundary, and a small slice of territory across the Adriatic. Croatia and Bohemia will be made independent territory as a buffer between Germany and Russia."

"It is proposed to divide Austria-Hungary into two states."

"These readjustments are not based upon conquest, but upon determination that peoples shall live in states of their own nationality. The allies do not propose to violate the captured German African colonies in view of Germany's abuses."

"These terms are allied terms. The United States has not lent itself to them. All this government says on such subjects is—let us beat Germany and the lines will then take care of themselves."

FURTHER CREDIT TO ITALY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—A further credit of $10,000,000 was given to the Italian government by the treasury department today.

DUTCH SHIPS KEPT GERMANS SUPPLIED WITH MUNITIONS

Operated From Base In East Indies—Traffic Apparently Has Been Checked.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Aug. 6.—Two ships, supposedly operating from a base somewhere in the Dutch East Indies have supplied the German armies in German East Africa with munitions, according to Carl Raymond Davis, manager of a gold mine in Johannesburg, South Africa, who was here today. One of the vessels resorted to Java in a shell-riddled condition.

A sprinkling of British white troops, strengthening forces from India and 30,000 negroes Askaris are conducting the campaign against the Germans in German East Africa. The force is commanded by the Boer general, Van de Venter. Peasants throughout the region among white troops operating in the region and fifty per cent of them were compelled to withdraw to coast cities, according to Davis.

FRENCH UNITED IN EFFORT TO CRUSH HUNS

Enter Upon Fourth Winter War In Fine Moral And Physical Health.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

PARIS, Aug. 6.—Louis J. Malvy, French minister of interior, today replied to the request of the Associated Press for a statement outlining his views on the end of the third year of the world war. The minister began by emphasizing the fact which he said sometimes had not been sufficiently realized that it was "the unanimous and concerted effort of every citizen which allow us regiments to keep crushing the barbarous assaults on the moving frontier of trenches."

M. Malvy ended with words to his three years at the ministry of interior, where under France's central-ized administration he had been in the closest touch with the whole country, being the only minister who has held the same office throughout the war under the successive premiers.

The minister said: "The length of the war and the enemy's inauguration of submarine piracy placed us last winter face to face with fresh difficulties, but economically as in every other way, France has inflexibly and imperturbably confronted each, and has already begun to conquer. She has poured forth her blood too freely to begrudge her gold or endurance. With firm endurance she is accepting a regime of restrictions. After some inevitable tentative efforts we will regulate between now and the beginning of winter the food supply and heating."

"The country, then, is ready to enter upon the fourth winter of the war in the best conditions of physical and moral health. It knows that, thanks to American aid, next spring it will apply to once all its endurance and every sacrifice."

"Every time we have exacted increased work of devotion it has been with firm to explain she is accepting the French citizen is like the French soldier, who is willing to die if necessary as the civilian is willing to suffer but each demands to understand why."

"Never was my mission easier than in the first months of the war, when at the government's appeal party and class differences disappeared. Even our extremists answered to a confidence which it was an honor to me to offer them rushed to the frontier to fight."

COOL WEATHER AND RAINS HAVE AIDED CROPS IN SASK.

But Much More Rain Is Required If Wheat Yield Be Increased.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

REGINA, Sask., Aug. 6.—The cool weather of last week and rain generally throughout the province has done much to improve crop conditions. From a report issued from the office of the provincial department of agriculture yesterday, crop correspondents generally in Saskatchewan are more optimistic than last week.

Almost every point reports local showers during the past week. On the other hand, a great deal more rain is needed if the wheat crop is to be anything more than between 10 and 18 bushels to the acre.

CHINA FOR WAR

LONDON, Aug. 6.—A Tien despatch to the Daily Mail, dated Friday, says the cabinet has approved China's declaration of war against Germany.

And that the decision now requires only the presidential signature. The president is reported to be perfectly agreeable. A war proclamation is likely to be made at an early date.

DICK M'BRIDE, EX-PREMIER OF B.C., IS DEAD

Passed Away At His Residence In London.

FOR YEARS THE FIRST MINISTER OF B. C.

Tribute To Deceased Politician By Premier Brewster.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

VANCOUVER, B.C., Aug. 6.—A private cable announced the death of Richard McBride, former premier of British Columbia, in London at 6 o'clock this morning. Death is said to have been due to Bright's disease from which the former premier had been suffering for several years.

Lady McBride and family are at present in England. Sir Richard and family were on the eve of sailing. It has not yet been decided whether interment will take place in England or the body shipped to British Columbia for burial.

"I feel very keenly the news of Sir Richard McBride's death," said Premier H. C. Brewster, of British Columbia last night when interviewed. "Although we were political opponents we were warm personal friends."

Sir Richard McBride differed from most political leaders in that he had frequently warm friendships with his most ardent opponents. He was one of the most likeable dispositions in British Columbia and it is this charm of his that won so many friends for him and accounted very largely for his success. His death will be felt very keenly in British Columbia by Liberals and Conservatives alike for his political antagonists worked to put him out of office because of his policies and were frequently his friends in private life.

Sir Richard had had a remarkable career, being a remarkably young man when accorded the honor of premiership, which position he held for almost 13 years. He was suffering from neuritis in an advanced stage when he resigned from the agent-generalship about the middle of last May, but intended to return to British Columbia in July. His illness, however, proved too severe to permit him travelling."

In concluding Premier Brewster expressed his deep sympathy with Lady McBride and her daughters in their bereavement.

Sir Richard McBride became premier of British Columbia on June 1, 1913, and held the position until December 15, 1915. He resigned to accept the position of agent-general of the province in London.

WORST 'QUAKE FOR 60 YEARS NEW ZEALAND

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

LONDON, Aug. 6.—A violent earthquake which caused damage has occurred in the southern portion of North Island, N.Z., according to a Reuter dispatch from Wellington. The Wairarapa district, northwest of Wellington, suffered most severely. Pioneer residents of North Island, the dispatch adds, describe the quake as the worst since the terrible upheaval sixty years ago. North Island is the northernmost of the New Zealand group. Two active volcanic peaks on the island are Mounts Ruapehu and Tongariro.

WOMAN KIDNAPPED; THROWN INTO SLOUGH

No Cause Assigned For Outrage Committed Near Selkirk, Manitoba.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

SELKIRK, Man., Aug. 6.—Mrs. Elsie Hansen was kidnapped by two unidentified men in an automobile and thrown into a slough outside of Selkirk Friday evening.

She was able to crawl out after her, but the kidnappers had escaped. No trace of the assailants has been found. No cause for the attack is known.

Mrs. Hansen is the wife of Hayurur Hansen, who won the dog race from Headingly to Winnipeg early this year, and took part in the Winnipeg to St. Paul race.

Carry Outposts Up to Main Line of Enemy's Position West of Lens

Men Of Two Battalions In Dashing Attack Capture Crater Occupying Cross Road—Bombing Cleared Out Harassing Rifle And Grenade Centres—Germans Didn't Put Up Fight—Russian Retirement In Bukovina Slackening—With More Favorable Weather Combatants In Flanders Feeling Each Others Strength.

(By the Canadian Overseas Correspondent.)

CANADIAN HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, Monday, Aug. 6, via London.—Following up the successful advance on Saturday afternoon in the region of Cite du Moulin, another advance was made last night, carrying our outposts up to the main line of the enemy's defense on the railway embankment to the west of Lens. The men of two Canadian battalions, in a dashing attack, captured a crater occupying a cross road to the east of Cite du Moulin, and a crater to the north of the Lens-Lievins Road, which passes through Du Moulin.

For several days the enemy had maintained strong posts in these craters, with harassing rifle and grenade fire directed at our outpost line at night. The attack for the most part was carried out with bombs, the approach in both cases being through a maze of partially destroyed houses, which did not lend themselves to the use of the rifle. When the bombs began to fall the enemy did not stay to fight it out, but retired towards his main positions, leaving the craters to be incorporated in our advance line. An attacking party then advanced to two tunnels known to be occupied by the enemy, and bombed them, inflicting, it is believed, a considerable number of casualties on the enemy.

A break in the clouds has permitted a resumption of the artillery and aerial activity.

Retirement Slackening

LONDON, July 6.—The Russian retirement in Bukovina is slackening somewhat while the Anglo-French and German armies in Flanders, with more favorable weather, are feeling out each other's strength. On no front was there fighting on a large scale Monday.

Further attacks by the Germans against the British lines at Hollebeke in the Ypres salient between Ypres and Warneton, were repulsed by Sir Douglas Haig's men and the Teutons gained nothing. Crown Prince Rupprecht, also met with failure on assault against the British at Westhoek, directly west of Ypres.

Airmen At It Again

The rain having ceased, British airmen took to the air Monday and Field Marshal Haig's latest report says they carried out successful bombing raids and other work. The later activity probably was the photographing of the new German positions and the gaining of information preparatory to another effort by the British. German airmen tried to check this activity. Five airplanes of the Teuton forces were sent down and three others were forced to descend out of control. Only one British machine is reported missing.

Lens, the coal centre north of Arras, is slowly falling into the British net. After their success of Saturday, the Canadians again moved forward slightly to the west and southwest of the town on Monday. Severe losses were inflicted on the Germans when they attempted a raid north of Arras, southwest of Lens and west of Vimy.

Artillery Duels At Verdun

From St. Quentin to Verdun on the French front artillery duels have been in progress.

Apparently the Russians are holding their line north of the Dniester, and Berlin reports they are preparing to give battle to the advancing enemy between the Dniester and the Pruth. Berlin reports no advance north of the Pruth, but the Russians are retiring from the Pruth southward to the Roumanian frontier.

PETROGRAD, Aug. 6.—General L. G. Kornloff, in accepting the position of commander in chief of the Russian armies, has telegraphed to Premier and War Minister Kerensky the conditions upon which he is willing to take the supreme command.

"First, I wish to be responsible to my conscience and to the people," says the general.

"Second, no one shall intervene in my fighting orders and appointments."

"Third, the measures adopted during the last few days at the front also shall be applied at the depots in the rear."

LONDON, Aug. 6.—General Masovskiy, commander of the guards corps which headed the Russian retreat on the southwestern front, has been ordered shot by General Kornloff, commander in chief, for non-compliance with his orders to shoot deserters.

LABOR DELEGATE CLAIMS THAT DEALERS ARE ATTEMPTING TO CORNER YEAR'S POTATO CROP

Statement Made At Meeting Trades And Labor Council—Farmers
Being Offered 40c to 50c A Bushel For Tubers In Ground With A View To Holding-Up Consumers.

"Can we get in touch with the United Farmers, and try to take some steps to prevent this being done," said Delegate Moxon, at the meeting of the Trades and Labor council, last night, referring to a statement he had just made, that dealers were going round the potato growers, "at the present time, and owing to the fact that the price of the crop is so low as it stood in the ground. "I am not speaking so much of the price," remarked the speaker, "but of the fact that the crop is going to be held up and presently we shall not be able to buy potatoes at less than $4 per bushel."

Carpenters and Exhibition

Delbert Thompson, of the Brotherhood of Carpenters, complained that the Exhibition board would not employ local carpenters on work to be done at the grounds. They gave the work to an assortment of strangers, including foreigners, and men who were John Davis, of Prince Albert, an official of the Brotherhood of Railroad Car-men, who is a visitor to the city, said that the remarks were well made, but labor men always fail to take action on the money paid to unions. They could do so by way of co-operative buying, not only in their own cities, but also by buying for unions in other cities. Last year the west could have saved $200,000 by buying in bulk, he said. But so long as they would not work together in this co-operative manner they deserved to pay the high not carpenters.

It was promised that the matter should be taken into.

Delegate Thompson also asked about the money paid to Aid. Kinney, when acting as the representative of the Federation of Labor during the last session of the provincial parliament.

Secretary Farmilo answered that the Dominion Trades congress made a grant of $100,000 to the work of Aid. Kinney was paid from this. The money did not come from the Alberta Federation at all, he said. The amount

For Consumers League
President Findley said that the Consumers league was holding a meeting this week concerning the coal and drug stores. He said that the council might attend and bring up the matter. The city council had the power to hold an inquiry but they would not do it.

Secretary Farnlio said that he had been told that the coal and drug store council would not be in the fight against high prices.

that they were going to run candidates for the city council this year, and that we are going to ask for an inquiry.

Delegate Bellis said that railway men would be taking full advantage of getting over this year for about a month at 20 and 25 cents per dozen, until the packing houses came along, and then the price immediately jumped to 30 cents.

It was then suggested that Chairman Findley and Secretary Farnillo should attend the meeting of the Consumers' league as representatives of the Trades and Labor council.

Resolutions that were passed at the joint meeting of the special committee of the Trades and Labor council and the executive of the Great War Veterans' association, Secretary Farnillo said, were that the resolutions, which included matters relating to the interests of both labor and returned veterans, after they had been separately endorsed by the respective associations, would be adopted by the Trades and Labor council and Returned Veterans' associations, and then sent to the Trades congress, with the idea of joint action by congress and the Returned Veterans' executive at Ottawa.

Delegates to Congress

A committee consisting of Chairmen Findley, Berry, Gault, De-man Dindley, Buxton and Youngblood was appointed to visit the seventeen locals affiliated with the council and ascertain if they wished the council to be represented at the Trades and Labor congress in September, and if so they would willing to pay the expenses of delegate, which it was stated would be from $225 to $250 and would mean a call of from $10 to $15 per local.

The first motion was that the council, owing to the expense should not act, because it had been pointed out that the council paid for affiliation to the congress and it was the only chance of a voice in its affairs. It was also pointed out that this year congress was going to be more important than perhaps it had been for some

UNITED GRAIN GROWERS

When the United Grain Growers, which is the official title under which the Alberta Farmers and the Grain Growers will operate after September 1, starts receiving the new season's crop they will have in this province 14 elevators, several of them being new houses which have been built and are in the course of completion. The success of the Alberta movement had been splendid, and during the few short years which it has been in operation here, much a reputation was made as a credit to the membership and the officers who have been directing its affairs. In addition to the Alberta elevators there will be the eastern houses which will bring the total up to about 350, such as at Fort William.—Market Examiner.

The Daily Poem

SHADOWS
I am here all alone by the fire-side;
Around me the dark shadows dance.
And I wonder what shadows are falling on you
In the war-caverned fields of far France.
'Twas aeons and more ago, surely,
That I gaily met you in the hall,
And you sat here beside me and told me
You'd answered the wonderful call.
Then somehow your arms were around me,
We whispered a heart-driven truth,
Though the words were but few that were spoken,
For silence meant more to us both.
I'm glad that you went when the call came,
I'm proud of the honors you've won,
And I don't want you back till it's over—
Till everything's finished and done
I've sewed and I've knit and re-knit,
I've done everything that I can;
But it all seems so little and so feeble besides your real work as a man.
For here in the firelight gleaming
On ceiling and pictures and rug,
While you—oh, I can't make that picture!
But this seems so selfish and snug,
I can't even pray for your safety,
For who knows what on you might depend?
And I would not deny you that great love—
To lay down your life for a friend.
So here all alone in the shadows,
And only my heart with you there,
I am waiting as only a woman can
To bear what a woman must bear.

TODAY'S INQUIRIES

What is meant by the cold-pack method of canning?

Cold pack canning simply means to scald or blanch, and cold dip all vegetables, to pack them uncooked and cook in the closed jar.

What is the difference between scalding and blanching in the canning process?

In blanching, the product is left in the water for a longer period than in scalding.

Why is blanching necessary?

Blanching is necessary for canning because it eliminates objectionable acids and acid flavors and makes it unnecessary to exhaust or use the

On Receipt of Wedding Invitation To the Editor of Woman's Page:

Dear Madam—I have been working with a firm for about six months, and my bookkeeper has been here just as long. He is going to be married. (1) If I am invited to the wedding should I accept or decline the invitation? (2) What would be the proper kind of dress to be worn? (3) If I decline the invitation, should I send a gift, or do you think I should be present if invited, as I do not know any of his friends or family, but I know he is very well brought up, and a lovely young man. If they do not have wedding and I only receive an announcement, should I then send a gift, and should I send a letter to him? (4) Please mention a desirable gift to bring or send.

A DAILY READER.

(1) Acceptance of the invitation depends wholly on your own wishes; if you care to do so, it would be a gracious thing for you to go if invited. If only an announcement is sent, it is not necessary for you to reply, but if the invitation includes a card to the reception or breakfast, you should reply.

(2) Your manner of dressing would depend on the time and place of the wedding. If you are invited to a church wedding any time before 6 o'clock you can wear a tulle or linen suit very well; if later in the evening a thin frock in a light shade. A pretty frock of georgette or silk would be quite suitable for any time of the day. A hat should always be worn if the wedding ceremony takes place in church. If a home wedding, a dress which you could go in regulation evening dress without a hat.

(3) You may send a gift if you are so inclined, whether you attend or not. (4) If you receive only an announcement it is not necessary to send a present unless you feel that you know the young man quite well. Under no circumstances should you send a gift of a wedding gift or a letter to the bride.

(5) The shops are full of appropriate gifts. A small piece of flat silver, a gayly painted coaster or a set of a pretty piece of pottery, these are all nice to send. Send the gift; do not carry it with you.

Having business for himself in 1896 at Rapid River, Michigan.

The call of the Spanish American war found an immediate response in his nature and he served in Cuba, under the American flag, winning a medal, but contracting fever and ague from which he suffered for some time.

About the close of the century he returned to Canada and in 1901 was married to Miss Annie V. Bone, daughter of David Bone, one of the early settlers of Paisley, Ontario, who with one son, Adelbert, and one daughter, Margaret, survive him.

In 1904 Mr. and Mrs. Roseborough came west and were among the pioneers of the Vermilion district, coming from Saskatchewan, which was the end of the steel at that time, by trail, and homesteading just west of the present site of the town of Vermilion.

Since then he has been one of the leading citizens of the town, respected as a sincere and upright man, alike in business and social spheres. Carrying on his business in Vermilion he was also greatly interested in mechanical work and devised some practical inventions being especially engrossed in aeronautical craft, some of which were presented to the Imperial government, previous to his enlistment. At the outbreak of the present war he was keenly patriotic and enlisted in July, 1915, in the 66th battalion, proceeding overseas with it in the spring of 1916. He was selected to go with one of the earliest drafts to the front in Flanders.

He was transferred there to the 48th battalion. He was wounded and gassed near Ypres, in June, 1916, and after a period in an English hospital was sent home just before Christmas, 1916, and appeared to be improving for some time, but in the early spring of 1917, his condition began to give alarm. He entered the hospital in Edmonton about May 24, where he gradually sank. Bright and patient to the last, his Christianity, which had been a quiet but marked characteristic of his life throughout, gave happy testimony to the strength and sincerity of his faith and trust in his Saviour to the end, and he passed away with the glory of a man who knew his duty and his God.

The following lines written by him on the occasion of his father's death seem singularly appropriate, in turn to his own entry into immortality: "Thy Spirit is gone to its maker To meet Thy Redeemer above, And the trumpet of the Lord shall awake him."

Thy soul, to ascend like a dove. The Master shall greet thee with kindness. Beyond the knowledge of men. And give thee a place in the Kingdom. As the Saints shall proclaim the Amen. With the Hosts of the Lord thou shalt gather. To witness Christ's Kingdom come in. And the Spirit of God shall forever in Triumph and Glory reign on."

Famous Women

Catherine of Braganza

Catherine of Braganza, the wife of Charles II. of England, began life under the most favorable auspices, and had every reason to believe that happiness would be hers to the end of her days. But her life at the English court was miserable indeed. She was born on November 25, 1638, and at the age of twenty-four was married to Charles II. She arrived at Portsmouth in May 1662, where Charles was waiting to receive her. The marriage ceremony was performed privately by the Archbishop of Canterbury and also a second time, with greater secrecy, according to the Roman Catholic ritual. Catherine was well liked by her new subjects. Her father had arranged the marriage for her, needing Charles as an ally. She had not been in England very long before Charles' conduct toward her changed from amiability to complete indifference, which she had to endure for twenty-three years. Embittered she learned to endure Charles' mistresses with coldness and even looked upon the Duchess of Cleveland, lady of the bed-chamber, with paltry respect, and she made count of her husband's mistresses, and said to have gone about masked, crying "two houses unknown, and ed that with 'great and wild' Charles never entertained any ill feelings toward his lawful consort, just simply ignored her. So Catherine, seeking to win the favor which might lead him with her to seek a divorce, but he rejected her. When he on his death-bed and Catherine, stricken, wept by his side and at his forgiveness if by any chance some consolation when he exclaims: "A poor woman! She beg me? I beg her with all my heart. Catherine died at Lisbon on Dec. 21, 1705.

"Everything I Eat Turns To Gas—Stomach On Fire With Indigestion!"

Simple Anti-Acid Taken with Meals Prevents Gas, Bloating, Belching, Heartburn, Sour Stomach and Acid Indigestion. Eat Freely without Fear. No More Diet.

People who have "stomach trouble" and who suffer after every meal from sour acid, gassy stomach, bloating, heartburn and indigestion should take a couple of grains of bisulphated magnesia tablets after their meals for a while and note results.

Medical men made a most important discovery in the treatment of stomach troubles when they found that practically every case of indigestion and dyspepsia was caused by the presence in the stomach of "too much acid." By using ordinary bisulphated magnesia to neutralize this acid and sweeten the stomach the food digested naturally without causing trouble and digestive aids, like pepsin, etc., were no longer necessary.

Bisulphated Magnesia is a special form of refined magnesia which you should

COMEDY RULES IN THE PANTAGES BILL

By Bulletin Dramatic Critic.

An average bill at Pantages this week—comedy for the most part with plenty of jokes sprinkled in, some new, some middle-aged, and some antique, many of them good and a few that are not.

The current events film is interesting as usual. The program proper started with the Dime-theatre Ben Dunham troupe of gymnasts and "aerial artists." These are remarkably good in their specialty and some of their stunts are of the hair-raising order. One of the performers does his trapeze work blindfolded and one feels that only by some special miracle does he escape breaking his neck.

Lane & Harper, in "The Man and the Manicure," give us some smart, catchy songs and jokes that are really funny but their voices show the effect of the altitude.

"A Friendly Call" is an Irish playlet which has a quaint, old-fashioned air that is very pleasing. It is crisp and fresh and clean. The man who plays the pipes makes a distinct hit.

It seems that no vaudeville program is complete nowadays without one of the "nut" tribes, and Neil McKinley, officiating on this occasion, this performer is clever and makes a good impression at the start but spoils it all in the opinion of many people, by a mocking travesty of sacred things which to say the least, is in poor taste.

Any entertainment which contains in its title the name of the devil or Satan, is bound to draw a full house just on that account and the wind-up revue "Oh! You Devil" is no exception to the rule. There is nothing particularly humorous about it, however, and the young person may safely be allowed to attend. There is not a vestige of a plot about it.

"JOAN THE WOMAN" BACK; THIS TIME AT THE MONARCH

For the second time "Joan the Woman" is being shown in Edmonton with Geraldine Farrar in the title part. Everything considered the picture which has a much more advantageous position at the Monarch than when it was first shown, is more satisfactory on second showing. The picture is a masterpiece of the Monarch orchestra is a genuine treat and in every respect the picture is a masterpiece. It is a story of the life of Joan of Arc, which is a story of the life of a woman who was a heroine of the world. The picture is a masterpiece of the Monarch orchestra is a genuine treat and in every respect the picture is a masterpiece.

Never lived there an opportunist like Joan of Arc. Her constant cry was "I am so short and there is so much to be done." Even after she raised the siege of Orleans in one of the most brilliant military exploits of all ages, she was not content to remain idle in her newly won honors. Where those around her counted time in months and years, Joan counted the days.

The cast which appears in support of Miss Farrar consists of several players from "Who's Who in Photoplayland." The players include Wallace Reid, Theodore Roberts, and example, Raymond Hatton, Tully Marshall, James Neil, Marjorie Daw, Lillian Leighton, Hedy Koch, Billy Elmer, and Charles Clary.

Alkali in Shampoos Bad For Hair

If you want to keep your hair looking its best, be careful what you wash it with. Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much alkali. Just use the hair oil, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it. The best thing for steady use is just ordinary multifid coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless) and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use. One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage. You can get multifid coconut oil at any pharmacy. It's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

GREAT SQUADRON OF TANKS PASS WITH FLYING COLORS THROUGH SPECTACULAR FIGHT

Monsters Prove Their Worth As Never Before In Battle Of Flanders—One Captures A Fort Single Handed—Indifferent To Bombs They Blow Down Panic Stricken Germans.

BRITISH HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE AND BELGIUM, Aug. 6.—(By the Associated Press)—The great squadron of tanks which went into action with the British infantry at dawn yesterday proved their worth to a place among the modern engines of war. The battle of Flanders furnished the most comprehensive test of the worth of these monsters as fighting machines. They passed through the ordeal with flying colors, notwithstanding the fact that they were operating under the most unfavorable conditions. The opening of the conflict saw a considerable concentration of tanks. Fewer tanks proportionally were knocked out by a direct hit than in any previous engagement. The total of the casualties among the tank crews was remarkably low and most of these were among men who deliberately sacrificed their lives for their iron fort and worked in the open under machine gun fire. The material damage the tanks did to the enemy tanks was enormous and prisoners state that very heavy casualties were inflicted on the Germans.

Humorists of Tanks. That the enemy is extremely afraid of the tanks is without question and in numerous instances the Germans surrendered freely on the mere appearance of one of these engines, which truly are of terror-inspiring appearance. At one place eight German officers surrendered without question when a tank crawled and threatened to open fire, and sixty soldiers were captured by a single tank near Saint Julien.

There were accidents, which though regrettable, are not without touches of humor. One of the tanks, which was in the dark toward the front some time before the battle, encountered railway wagons standing on a crossing. The operators of the tank did not see the obstacle and the engine of the train could not hear the approach of the tank because of the noise made by his machinery. The tank went through the train as if it were made of pasteboard and continued its lumbering but ruthless way, leaving one of the railway wagons much the worse for wear.

A Spectacular Battle. The tanks did much fighting in the difficult country about Saint Julien and Frezenberg and in the territory lying directly between the two towns. The defenses near Frezenberg a spectacular battle occurred. This consisted of two strong redoubts, one of which was known as the "Casse" and the other as the "Beehive." The tanks moved across the stream and sodden ground under a heavy fire from the machine guns in the redoubts, and the anti-tank guns hidden behind the fortifications. The tanks worked its way around the castle, and opening fire, drove all the defenders into the other redoubt. Then forced to retreat, the tanks struck the castle and compelled all the enemy to flee back to the castle, where in a frenzy of fear the Germans took refuge. At this point other tanks joined in the fray and after surrounding the castle delivered a concerted assault, clearing the castle for the second time, as well as all the outlying defenses.

Another tank attacked Saint Julien with the infantry. It drew the fire of a snail fort to the west of the village and turned aside to deal with this. One shot only it fired at the fortification and the Germans to a man pressed out their hands, crying "Kamerad," and gave themselves up. This was a capture totaling sixty prisoners. Having silenced this fort, the tank moved the Steenbeek and proceeded through the short main street of St. Julien to the northern side. It assisted the infantry to clear the place of the German defenders, who were in the buildings, and then returned without having suffered damage, leaving the British in possession.

Valuable work also was done by the tanks in sections of woodland back of the Ypres-Menin road. The largest of these patches of forest had a strong redoubt in front. The wood was filled with machine guns and afforded opportunity for the passing of German troops. The tanks were sent ahead to clear the wood. The redoubt in front of the wood was taken after a fierce fight between the guns of a tank and those of the little fort.

Stuck in the Mud. Beyond the redoubt the tanks found themselves under a steady hail of machine gun bullets, but they lined up on the edge of the woods and for which they were helped because they stuck in the mud. The tanks were stuck in the mud, and the Germans forced to retire. The tanks then returned to the front and the wood was taken after a fierce fight between the guns of a tank and those of the little fort.

For the most part the tanks proved that they were capable of moving over the most difficult ground, but in a few cases they were stalled at times in holes or mud. When this happened officers and crew rushed out under heavy fire in order to set up their machine guns in more advantageous positions. Some of these infantrymen were killed or wounded and it was due to such acts as these that many of the tank casualties resulted.

No bombs were used against the tanks in Tuesday's fighting, for the Germans discovered that they might as well bomb the side of a battleship as the side of a tank. The line of infantry and moved the Germans down in large numbers. Scotch troops finished the repulse with bayonets.

NEWS OF THE DISTRICT

KILLAM

Bulletin Correspondence.

At a meeting held in Willis Hallow school house Messrs. Mackie, Cutler, Benson and Scott, all government experts in their lines, gave quite a lot of interesting information on farming matters and methods and it is to be hoped that at sometime in the near future they will return.

Messrs. Mackie and Cutler gave their opinion on the insect causing wheat damage in this locality this year is not the Hessian fly as it was stated by many, but it is one called "Thrips," a very much less destructive insect than the Hessian fly.

Mr. Benson talked on poultry and egg marketing and his talk will help poultry matters here, for he repeatedly emphasized the need of increased production.

Mr. Scott talked about live stock, illustrating his points on animals brought up for the purpose.

Those kindly bringing purebreds for this purpose were: E. Sedgewick, Holsteins; L. Lewis, Jerseys; G. Gauden, Herefords; L. Lymburn, Ayrshires. It is gratifying to see the purebred stock gradually coming to the locality.

DUNSTABLE

Bulletin Correspondence.

A picnic and dance was held at the Dunstable school on July 27th under the auspices of the Dunstable Local Union of the U. F. A.

Sports and games were thoroughly enjoyed by the crowd. There were races for all ages together with horse and pony races, each race receiving many entries. There were other sports which kept the crowd busy and interested until supper time (8 p.m.) when the people found the shady places and enjoyed themselves in another way.

The dance commenced about 9:30 p.m. with about two hundred people present. The rattle of the "freer," the incessant call of the stall-keeper, and the yell of the lemonade sellers all added to the general uproar, and every man, woman and child enjoyed themselves to the utmost.

The affair was voted a success in every way, and was satisfactory to all parties.

Dunstable, July 29th.

LITTLE BOY HAD DIARRHOEA

Only Blood Passed Bowels.

Diarrhoea, dysentery and summer complaint are responsible for more death, especially of children, during the summer months, than any other form of disease.

Mrs. E. Stoddart, Lower Clark's Harbor, N.S., writes: "When my little boy was a year and a half old he was taken awfully bad with diarrhoea. I had the doctor, but he got worse so that only blood passed his bowels. I tried everything, but he got no relief. One day while I was at work, I picked up a bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. After trying a bottle he began to get better, and the second one made a cure. I would not be without it in the house for my little ones. I am proud to say 'Dr. Fowler's' saved my little boy's life."

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry has been on the market for over 25 years, and there are many imitations of this wonderful bowel complaint remedy. See that you get the genuine when you ask for it. Price 35c.

CROWDED CARS NOT PUBLIC'S BUSINESS, SAYS PRIVY COUNCIL
London, Aug. 6.—The privy council has allowed the appeal of the Toronto City Council against a public right, which the Ontario legislature and the Toronto corporation had thought it advantageous to interfere with. The cars were not less thereby the property of appellants, which the public could only enter by invitation. What ever the conditions in the grant of the appellants' title the corporation had contracted for, they obtained merely between them and the appellants. Overcrowding was not a matter that affected the public, as such, but was a matter of the public who had obtained from the appellants licenses to enter the cars.

To The Belgians
It is hereby recalled that all Belgians born between the 30th June, 1876, and the 1st of July, 1898, must register for military service. By virtue of a proclamation of the 1st of May, 1917, more over all Belgians born between the 30th June, 1898, and the 1st of January, 1899, are called upon to serve. Such Belgians must register before the 15th August, 1917, with the nearest Belgian Consul, who will furnish them with the proper registration form on application. Those who enlist with the Canadian Expeditionary Forces before the 15th of August, 1917, are exempt from registration.

VALUES PULLED DOWN BY RAINS AND RECEIPTS
Situation Improving in Corn Belt
—Wheat Threshing Returns Showing Larger Yields.
CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—Beneficial rains in Kansas and forecast of showers over the greater part of the rest of the corn belt eased down prices today in the corn market. A dispatch from Topeka said the rain there gave the fields the first real soaking they had received in two months. Bears were further encouraged by the Missouri state crop report showing an improvement in the condition as compared with a month ago.
Opening quotations which ranged from 1 1/2 to 1 1/4 lower, with December at 1.18 1/2 to 1.17 and May 1.14 1/2 to 1.13, were followed by a moderate further setback.
Increasing receipts tended to pull down the value of wheat. After opening one cent off at 2.24 1/2 September, the market descended to 2.23 1/2.
Oats firmed owing to the hedging sales and of more plentiful arrivals. There were predictions of a greatly increased movement from the north.
Threshing returns from South Dakota were said to show larger returns than had been expected and market in the latter dealings fell to 2.23 1/2. The close was unsettled, 2 1/2c net lower at 2.23 September.
Newly all deliveries of provisions jumped to new high price records for the season. The advance was ascribed to buying on the part of shorts and speculators and to rise in the value of hogs and cottonseed oil.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 7, 1917.

The intimation that Sir Robert Borden is to be supplanted by Sir Clifford Sifton, may explain why the Canadian High Commissioner-ship has been left vacant.

Food control might get along faster if Mr. Hanna would stop talking at the public, who are more or less helpless, and do some talking to the profiteers, who largely decide what people shall be allowed to eat.

Regardless of the much talked of party truce the Government has duly filled the senate vacancies with party friends. It is one thing to postpone bye-elections for the House of Commons when the prospect is that they would go wrong, and quite another thing to leave Senate vacancies to be filled after a general election which is also likely to go wrong.

Settlers are continuing to go into the north country at a rate that would be highly satisfactory even in normal times, and which in time of war and food shortage is proportionately fortunate. They are going to a country whose worth has been proven, where industry and perseverance will win a large reward for the settler and contribute to the strength of the nation. May their hopes be all fulfilled, and their numbers increase.

A treaty has been arranged which provides for the mitigation of the mistreatment of prisoners of war in Germany. The arrangement seems to be that officers taken prisoner up to the end of 1915 are to be transferred to Switzerland or Holland and interned there. A much larger number will be affected by another provision, which requires that all reprisals in the treatment of prisoners of war shall be abolished. A treaty signed by the Berlin authorities is not a safe base upon which to build many hopes, but with the number of German prisoners in the hands of the Allies it may be hoped that this particular convention will be treated with some reasonable degree of respect.

The Toronto Globe says: "People do not want to wake up some morning and find that overnight a Cabinet has been foisted on the country whose members, or some of them, are open to the suspicion of being the pawns of powerful interests which have been long a sinister influence in Canadian politics." That is very true. But from the present aspect of things that is precisely what is likely to happen. The movement for a coalition Government may have originated with people who were simply desirous of securing a more efficient and non-partisan administration of affairs as a necessity to the exertion of the country's utmost strength in the war. But it has been apparently captured by the Big Interests, and is being utilized by them as a means of securing control of the Government for another five years. The disclosure of the scheme to supplant Sir Robert Borden by an ex-Liberal who was foremost in the fight against reciprocity settles the present status of the coalition movement. It may have begun as a win-the-war scheme, but it has been diverted into a work-the-war device on the part of the profiteering fraternity.

To save food now means more food and cheaper food next winter.

The disclosure of the plans of the Big Interests to retire Sir Robert Borden and to make Sir Clifford Sifton head of a coalition Government fixes the issue in the coming election. That issue is not conscription: it is the privilege to plunder the public by statutory authority.

Six years ago those who stood to profit by the defeat of reciprocity banded together, Liberals and Conservatives alike, and by supplementing the race campaign in Quebec with a flag-flapping campaign in Ontario succeeded in putting Sir Robert Borden and his associates in power. For the ensuing six years the Interests have dictated the policy of the Government in all matters relating to tariff and trade, with single regard to filling their own purses at the expense of the public. That they have done it successfully is not open to question. The war, which brought sacrifice to others, brought gain to them. Under pretense of raising a revenue to meet the cost of the war the tariff was boosted and the increased hardship thus imposed upon the people brought more money to the Interests than it did to the public treasury. Through the Shell Committee appointed by the Ministers they had created they robbed the British tax-payers as mercilessly as the Huns robbed the Belgians until Lloyd George refused to stand for it any longer and put the Shell Committee out of business. They have profited the public for food, for clothing, for implements, for anything and everything that could be made the medium for price-manipulation, under protection of an acquiescent Government. And for three years they have enjoyed complete immunity in the carnival of spoliation. Not until an election was in sight did the High Cost of Living Commission make a report, and the report was not printed and circulated until the Government had appointed another investigating body to prove that the figures in this report were wrong. Not until last week did the Minister of Finance accede to the public demand for a tax upon incomes, and even in doing so he was careful to assure the Big Interests that he only introduced the measure because he was afraid to refuse, and to inform them that if they paid the income tax they would be excused the already existing business tax.

Naturally, the Interests are not disposed to let go so profitably a side line as running the Government of the country if they can hang on to it. For them there is more money in politics than there is in business. Accordingly they propose to stay in politics, as the power behind the Government. But the present ministry has made such a wholesale bungle of things that it stood no chance of getting re-elected on its record. Some new issue had to be created or the Interests were done. Conscription was decided upon as most likely to prove disconcerting to the Opposition and to afford chances of gathering support. The bill was carefully drawn so that the power to exempt would reside in local tribunals. These local tribunals would, of course, be under the influence of the sentiment prevailing in the locality, or afraid to challenge it. In the vicinity of the munition factories and the industrial establishments they could be counted on to excuse everybody who was wanted, or might be wanted, to work for the Interests. In Quebec the Nationalist wing could truthfully tell their supporters that there would be no conscription for them unless a tribunal composed of themselves said so. And in the provinces where conscription sentiment was strong the electors could be told that they were being given just what they had asked for. The bill could thus be made the basis for a "win the war" propaganda which would hide the financial purposes of its authors and give the best available chance to win. But it was doubtful whether, even on the fake conscription bill, Sir Robert Borden could carry the country. Wherefore it has been decided to depose him and to make Sir Clifford Sifton head of the Government. Mr. Sifton was the most effective speaker and organizer of the anti-reciprocity forces six years ago. He is aggressively protectionist. He is undoubtedly talented. If he cannot win for them the Big Interests are "through." Whether they win depends on whether the public will allow themselves to be fooled by the pretense that it is winning the war, as everybody else does. If we do not win they will be plundered by the Huns. But they have no doubt about the war being won anyway; and their primary purpose is to "work the war" for all it is worth as a means of keeping control of the governing power and thus of the power to plunder the public.

Current Comment

Borden Must Go.

From Regina Leader.

Before Canada will be ready to take effective action to win the war, its people must have rulers and leaders in whom they can repose confidence.

Therefore, Borden and his Big Interests cabinet must go.

Due to Bad Management.

From the Saskatoon Phoenix.

The apparent necessity which exists for conscription at the present time is largely, if not entirely due to the bad management which was exercised over Canadian military and civil affairs during the period of war.

The lack of confidence which has been created by this prolonged mismanagement will not be easily overcome, nor can there be the real response to the calls for men under present conditions which there would be if we had been and were even now being justly ruled by an administration which was living above the plane of that partnership which has marked the Borden government from its inception.

Influence Still Exists.

From Saskatoon Phoenix.

Any criticism of what Quebec has done so far is to do for the war should never overlook the evil effect of the Conservative-Nationalist Alliance which began with the Drummond-Arthurs election in 1913 and which still exists.

There should have been no doubt in the minds of the loyal Conservative leaders about what the principles of the Nationalists were. There were four articles in the Nationalist platform which are worth reprinting, as follows:

(a) No participation by Canada in imperial wars outside her territory.

(b) To spurn any attempt at recruiting for imperial troops.

(c) To oppose the establishment in Canada of a naval school with the help and for the benefit of imperial authorities.

(d) Control over our militia and military colleges in time of war as in time of peace and for the defense of our territory exclusively.

Refusal to grant leave of absence to any militia officer in order that he may take part in any imperial war.

Conscription and Farm Labor.

From Western Correspondence Canadian Farmer, Toronto.

Winnipeg, July 14.—Whether or not the deficit of farm laborers in Western Canada will be rendered more acute as a result of the putting into force of the conscription policy is a question which is now being discussed by many agricultural bodies in the prairie provinces. What the effect will be has been the subject of much speculation, but there is no disposition to murmur at the very prospect of any militia officer in order that he may take part in any imperial war.

Assuming that the new law is aimed primarily to bring the youthful slackers into the ranks, however, the west will prove to be very busy.

Many thousands of deserted homesteads and multitudes of half-manned farms tell an eloquent story of western devotion to the Empire and the ideal for which Great Britain is fighting. There are scarcely any unmarried men left and thousands of those who have had family obligations have also donned the khaki. Conscription, as a result, if it is only applied to the younger unmarried men will have comparatively little effect upon production for the youth of the west is for the most part overseas at the present time.

This situation is reflected in the official recruiting figures which show that while the east needs 23,830 men to complete its share of Canada's promised army of 500,000, the west has contributed 22,885 more than its share, according to the government returns. An army of half a million men is approximately 13 per cent of the male population, according to the last census reports. On this basis the number of men required and those recruited may be shown as follows:

Eastern Canada

Required Recruited

Ontario 163,409 177,383

Quebec 131,462 46,534

Maritimes 62,131 39,299

Total 357,005 263,116

Western Canada

Manitoba, etc. 75,930 83,497

British Columbia 32,710 41,249

Alberta 29,118 35,897

Total 137,758 160,643

The possibilities of the west not only as an asset to the British Empire war time, but to the world as a field of production almost staggers the imagination. For instance, although the world's consumption of white flour is estimated by statisticians to be increasing at the rate of one hundred million bushels per year, Western Canada has enough good land still uncultivated to provide for this increase for 80 years. Some European countries consume the equivalent in white flour of over seven hundred million bushels per year, while the United States uses almost five and a half and Australia six.

Last year Western Canada produced about 239,000,000 bushels of wheat from about 13,500,000 acres, which is scarcely more than 12 per cent of the total area of land that, even with the incomplete surveys which have been made, is known to be good cultivable land available for settlement.

The Coming Election.

From the Calgary News-Telegram.

The extension of Parliament bill has been dropped, and we are likely to have a general election. It is, however, too early to make predictions. Either this is going to be a wide-open election, with a half-dozen parties, and the result uncertain, or it is going to be a sort of "frame-up" between the Conservative party and the conscription Liberals. In the latter case the cards are likely to be so "loaded" against them that the people of Canada will have little or no scope to express their real sentiments. But with a sudden ending of the war—which might come almost any day—well, there would be some election. Hundreds of thousands of people in this country, in our belief, are hiding their real opinions because they do not want to be understood as favoring anything that might detract from the effort that Canada is expected to put forth in assisting it to win the war. But, when that war is over—Wow! There will be some hot times.

Winning the War in Ottawa.

From the Ottawa Citizen.

Editor, Citizen: Would it not be a good thing for the Militia Department to put a stop to "joy riding" in their motor cars? Every second car in the afternoon and evening is being used by friends of the department. Before the war, officials of that department walked, now they ride, so do their friends. Why should the country's money be used for this unnecessary and expensive upkeep of cars and chauffeurs when the cry is "more money and more men." One can see these cars and men standing all day—when not Disfranchising Aliens.

From the Ottawa Citizen.

In referring to the proposal to disfranchise voters of alien birth in this country, Mr. Meighen, solicitor general, declared that the alien voters, probably disloyal at heart, would vote against the government because, inferentially, the government was the truly British party while the opposition was inclined to pander to the enemy. This flagrant appeal to prejudice and worse was couched in the following terms:

"And my honorable friend makes an appeal against the disfranchisement of several hundred thousand alien enemy citizens living in this country today. Is there any significance to be attached to that appeal made by the leader of the opposition at this time? Is it because he feels that these men of enemy extraction are probably those upon whom he can best rely in the position he takes toward the war policy of Canada?"

One need not the proposal of the government to foretell the proposed tactics of the government at the coming election.

Cambrai and Marne.

Before our trenches at Cambrai. We saw their columns cringe away. We saw their masses melt and reel. Before our line of leaping steel.

A handful to their storming hordes. We scourged them with the scourge of swords. And still, the more we slew, the more came up for every slain a score.

Between the hedges and the town. Their cursing squadrons we rode down. To stay them we outpoured our blood. Between the beetles and the wood.

In that red hell of shrieking shell. Unflinching our gunners fell. They fell, or ere that day was done, Beside the last unshattered gun.

But still we held them, like a wall. On which the breakers vainly fall—Till came the word, and we obeyed. Reluctant, bleeding, undelayed.

Our feet, astonished, learned retreat. Our souls rejected still, defeat. Unbroken still, lion at bay. We drew back grimly from Cambrai.

In blood and sweat, with slaughter spent. They taught us beaten as he went. Till suddenly we turned, and smote. The shout of triumph in their throat.

At last, at last we turned and stood—And Marne's fair water ran with blood. We stood by trench, steel and gun. For now the indignant fight was done.

We ploughed their shaken ranks with fire. We trod their masses into mire. Our sabres drove through their retreat. As drives the whirlwind through young wheat.

At last, at last we drove them back. Along their drenched and smoking track. We hurled them back, in blood and flame. The reeking ways by which they came.

By cumbered road and desperate ford. How fed their shamed and harassed horde! Shout, Sons of Freedom, for the day. When Marne so well avenged Cambrai!—Capt. Chas. G. D. Roberts.

Natural Request.

For over two weary hours the small boy had howled, and the other occupants were getting tired of it. "Oh, dear," moaned the young mother distractedly. "I really don't know what to do with the child." A sudden gleam of hope shone in the eyes of the old bachelor opposite. "Shall I open the window for you, madam?" he inquired politely.

A high school girl recently enquired of a librarian: "Have you a book on American Education in the Twelfth Century?"—Christian Register.

The Waste of War.

is terrible, but the waste of food in times of peace is colossal. Rich and poor alike eat tons of food that has little food value and this useless food breaks down the so-called eliminating organs and depletes the physical and mental powers.

Shredded Wheat Biscuit is all food, prepared by a process which makes every particle thoroughly digested. It is 100 per cent. whole wheat. Two or three of these Biscuits with milk, make a nourishing meal, supplying the greatest amount of energy at lowest cost. Delicious with sliced bananas, berries or other fruits.

ANSWERS

This department does not pretend to be infallible. It will endeavor, however, to answer questions best as it by readers of The Bulletin to the best of its ability, reserving the right to ignore all that are trifling or of concern only to the questioner. To receive attention, every inquiry must bear the name and address of the questioner. This information is not wanted for publication, but as an evidence of good faith.

How Far Under?

To the Bulletin: Can U-boats submerge to the bottom of the ocean or is there a limit to which they can sink with safety?

Pressure of deep water puts a limit on the depth to which a submarine can sink with safety. The Germans are said to have perfected a submarine that can descend and travel 200 feet under water.

The Junkers.

To the Bulletin: What is a Junker?

"Junker is a German word, pronounced 'yoonker' derived from words meaning 'youngster' or 'young lord.' A Junker is a member of the exclusive, aristocratic and militarist party in Prussia.

Falcons in the War.

To the Bulletin: It has been proposed to use falcons in the war.

The falcon, as of old, can be taught to swoop down upon any object. It is proposed to train them to swoop down upon periscopes carrying bombs that will explode and blind the submarine, or sink it.

Salonica.

To the Bulletin: What country owned Salonica prior to the start of this war?

Prior to the Balkan war of 1913 Salonica or Saloniki as it is sometimes spelled belonged to Turkey. By the terms of the treaty of peace the city was ceded to Greece.

With The Humorists.

How It Occurred.

Willis—How did the automobile accident occur?

Gillis—in the usual manner. The road turned one way and the car the other.

His Reputation.

"But what is his reputation? That is the principal thing."

"Well, papa, he is reputed to spend $50,000 a year. That's good enough for me."

Tit for Tat.

"Excuse me," said the waiter, "but this quarter you gave me for a tip is pester."

"Well, you brought me a cold storage egg and oleomargarine."

A Wide-awake Town.

Drummer (just arrived)—Is this a wide-awake town?

Hotel Clerk—You bet it is. Wait till you hear the cats tonight.

Light at Both Ends.

Edith—That Mr. Dubblehug he's introduced to me is a fine dancer; he's so light on his feet.

Marie—When you get better acquainted with him you'll discover he's light at both ends.

Minister of Agriculture, M. Tchernoff (Socialist).

Assistant Minister of War, M. Savinkoff.

Foreign Minister Terestchenko informs the Associated Press that M.

Tchernoff, who again becomes minister of agriculture, has been fully rehabilitated, his accusers having withdrawn charges that he had relations with Germany.

ALL RAIL TARIFFS EFFECTIVE SEPT. 1

Montreal, Aug. 6.—The chairman of the Canadian Freight Association has issued, on behalf of the Canadian railways new all rail tariffs from Montreal and all eastern territory to Port William and points west, which, it is proposed, will become effective Sept. 1. The new tariff provides increases in class rates per 100 pounds as follows:

Class 1, 6 cents; class 2, 3 cents; class 3, 3 cents; class 4, 3 cents; class 5, 2 cents.

This is a similar advance to that allowed recently by the board of railway commissioners in connection with rail and water rates.

How He Got Degree.

Speaking about college degrees, a chinaman who was complainant in a case in Edinburgh gave his name as Jamie Gregory, L.L.D.

"Where on earth did you get that distinction?" asked the attorney.

"It was a fellow from an American university," answered Jamie. "I swept his chimney three times. 'I canna pay ye cash, Jamie Gregory,' he says, 'but I'll mak' ye L.L.D. an' we'll ca' it quits.' An' he did, sir."

"Seal Brand" means a certain, definite blend of high-grade coffee—uniform in quality and always delicious.

POP GEERS WINS BIG STAKE ON HOBBLED RACER

Peter Pointer Carries Off The Principal Event At Columbus, Ohio, Meeting.

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 6.—Peter Pointer, who was given the hobbles a week ago and turned over to M. L. Snow to drive today by E. N. Geers, his agent, because of Geers' aversion to piloting a hobbled racer, won the $3,000 Elks' Home stake after a six heat battle. Pointer and Walter Cochrane were the two finishers. Drivers Valentine, Gray and McMahon were fined $25 at the end of the first mile in the 2:02 1-2 pace for not trying to win.

The Woodman took the 2:09 trot after making a break and finishing fourth in the first mile. He took a new record of 2:06 1-4 in the second heat.

CLARENCE DEMAR WINS MARATHON
Covered 13 1/4 Miles In 1h. 31m. 33secs. At Boston Cal. donian Sports.

BOSTON, Aug. 6.—Clarence Demar of Boston, who represented America in the Marathon race at the last Olympic games, was the winner of the modified Marathon at the athletic games of the Boston Cal. donian club. Demar covered the distance of 13 1/4 miles in one hour, thirty-one minutes and thirty-three seconds. Carl Lander, of Quincy, finished second; Arthur R. H. of Boston third, and Victor McAuley, the Canadian, who won the event last year, was fourth.

STOLE THIRD WITH BASES FULL—IT PAID
Stealing third with the bases full is another way for a baseball player to show his mental incapacity, at least that seems to be the general rule. It has remained, however, for McKee of the St. Louis team of the Pacific Coast league, to provide the exception. In a game with Salt Lake City recently, McKee was on the keystone sack with both first and third tenanted. As the opposing pitcher began to wind up, McKee sprinted for third. The man on third frantically waved him to go back, but McKee kept on, and the pitcher, sensing trouble, checked his motion and threw to second. As a result of the balk the man on third was automatically moved along to the home plate and McKee got his base. San Francisco won the game.

YORKTOWN RACES
YORKTOWN, Sask., Aug. 6.—Following are the results of today's races: 2:18 pace, purse $850—Dandy Boy; G. Stevens, Balaclava, Sask. won; Mike Minneapolis, C. Boyd, Canora, Sask. second; Tom Mayburn, Jud West, Fort William, third. Time 2:17 1-4; 2:17 1-4; 2:18.
2:30 pace, purse $200—Juna, R. Stevens, Yorkton, Sask. won; Mark Huntley, G. W. McMillan, Winnipeg, second; Johnny B. Ira Boucks, Yorkton, Sask. third. Time, 2:24 1-2; 2:24 1-2; 2:24 1-2.
Three-year-old colt race, purse $200—Billy K. S. Soblar, Yorkton, Sask. won; Sam Beckford, Ebenezer, Sask. second. Time 2:47 1-4; 2:47 1-4.
Half-mile, running—Charles, H. Zebben, Kamask, Sask. won; Slim Joe Mackin, Otthoan, Sask. second. Time, 55 1-4; 56.

Today's Anniversaries
On AUG. 7, 1777, General Putnam wrote a spirited letter to Governor Tryon, who had demanded the release of a prisoner taken by Putnam as a spy, and threatened vengeance if he should be executed. Here is the letter: "Edmund Palmer, an officer in the enemy's service, was taken as a spy lurking within our lines. He has been tried as a spy, condemned as a spy, and shall be executed as a spy, and the flag is ordered to depart immediately." The letter carried a postscript which said: "This soldier, being a spy, has been executed." The second bombardment of Tripoli by the American fleet took place on Aug. 7, 1804. It was on this date just 153 years ago, Aug. 7, 1814, that commissioners from the United States and England met at Ghent, Belgium, to arrange a treaty of peace. A solar engine, a sensational mechanical device adapted to obtain its power from the direct rays of the sun, was exhibited at Paris, Aug. 7, 1882, and attracted wide attention in scientific circles. This solar engine worked another small engine and ran a printing machine for several hours. Ericsson, the famous Swedish inventor, was the mechanical genius whose brain had produced this marvel, which he later greatly improved.

SCOTTISH FOOTBALL
LONDON, Aug. 6.—The Scottish Football association will open up the league soccer season on Aug. 18, with a full schedule of games. Owing to the many difficulties in travelling, three of last year's teams, Aberdeen, Dundee and Raith Rovers, have withdrawn from this year's competition, and Clydebank, a second division club, obtained admission so the Scottish will consist of eighteen clubs instead of the usual twenty.

Adventures of Uncle Wiggily

UNCLE WIGGILY AND SALLIE GROWLER.

Copyright, 1917, by McClure News-Paper Syndicate.

Once upon a time, when Uncle Wiggily Longears, the rabbit gentleman, had hopped away from his hollow stump bungalow, looking for an adventure, he stopped under a tree in which he could see, by looking up, a large nest.

"Now, I wonder," said Uncle Wiggily to himself, "whether that is a squirrel's nest or a bird's nest. I must find out."

It did not take him long, for, about as soon afterwards as it would have taken him to chew a lettuce leaf, the bunny uncle heard a voice up in the tree-nest saying:

"Now, Sallie, you can't go, and there is no use in your asking again. It isn't right for you to go."

"But, mother, I want to go!"

"I don't want you to, Sallie, so that's all there is to it. And, oh, Sallie! What an unhappy face for a little squirrel girl! How cross you look!"

"I don't care!" growled Sister Sallie, for it was the little squirrel girl, "I want to go fishing with Johnnie and Billie. I don't see why I can't," and Sallie grumbled and growled as little squirrel girls sometimes do when they can't have what they want.

"Oh, Sallie! I'm ashamed of you," said Mrs. Bushytail, the mother of Johnnie and Billie. "See, there's Uncle Wiggily down on the ground under the nest, and he's looking up at you."

"What's the matter up there?" asked the jolly voice of the old rabbit gentleman as he twinkled his pink nose like a lollipop.

"Oh, Johnnie and Billie have gone fishing over in the duck pond ocean," answered Mrs. Bushytail, "and Sister Sallie is cross because she can't go. The boys take her, sometimes, but today they didn't want to."

"It isn't nice for little squirrel girls to be cross and growl," said Uncle Wiggily. "But still I know it isn't any fun to stay at home and not go fishing. How could you like to come fishing with me, Sallie?"

"Don't want to!" growled Sallie, her lips sticking out in a most unpleasant pout.

"Why, Sallie Bushytail! I'm more ashamed of you than ever!" cried her mother. "You must go fishing with Uncle Wiggily when he is so good as to invite you. Here, I'll help you get ready, and perhaps when you come back from having had a good time, you won't be so cross and growly."

So Mrs. Bushytail combed Sallie's hair and started her off with the bunny uncle fishing. Sallie thought she didn't want to go, and she pouted and growled and looked cross.

But Uncle Wiggily only blinked his eyes, twinkled his pink nose and said nothing. He went on to a another fishing place, where he saw Johnnie and Billie wouldn't see him, and then he helped Sallie get her hook and line ready, and pretty soon they were both fishing.

Sidelights on the War

Meatless Days and Fasting.

"Meatless days are now the rule in most of the warring countries of Europe. It was first ruled in Germany that the consumption of meat must be reduced, and the meat cards followed, which were issued for four or five days in the week, and those days which meat was permitted, the allowance was cut down to a minimum. Monday and Tuesday are now meatless days in France. England was the first to permit meat consumption cut down and on this side of the Atlantic the high cost of living is doing its share in that direction. All of which leads to the reflection that it wouldn't be so bad to try fasting for one or two days a week or even longer, for those who can stand it. It can be done. I think how much money we would all of us save if we could fast for forty consecutive days, as Dr. Tanner of New York did thirty-seven years ago. It was undertaken for scientific purposes and from noon of June 25th to noon of Aug. 7, 1880, Dr. Tanner went wholly without food of any kind. He drank very little water during this period and no other liquid whatever. When he began his fast he weighed 157 pounds; when he ended he weighed 121. When his fast was over Dr. Tanner displayed the old theory that hearty eating after long abstinence was fatal, by eating liberal quantities of meat and fruit. If some of the people in the warring countries could do that, one of the greatest problems of the war would solve itself.

Making the Navy Bigger

The draft and the building up of the merchant marine so as to insure supplies for our Allies and for our troops fighting in France are two of the outstanding features of Uncle Sam's war activity just now. We know that "somewhere off the English coast" our destroyers are hunting U-boats, but that is about all we hear of the navy. It will come as a surprise to most people to learn that Uncle Sam is as busy as he can be in his various navy yards, not alone building and repairing ships, but creating facilities for building almost a whole new fleet. The "Official Bulletin" from Washington tells us that shipbuilding facilities in the United States navy yards are being expanded to such an extent that sixteen war vessels may be on the ways at one time, while fully thirty two may be in course of construction. This does not include submarines and marine chasers. With the shipways now being built or projected, the United States navy will be able to have in course of construction on the ways at one time sixteen war vessels, and sixteen submarines and chasers. There are now under construction in government yards three battleships, four destroyers and many other vessels.

In connection with the above, it is interesting to speculate on the present size of the British and German navies. It is said by some people who claim to have good sources of knowledge that the navies of both of these countries have doubled in size since the outbreak of the war. In addition to this, some entirely new types of ships have been evolved, notably the great mystery ships of the British navy, of which nothing more is known except that they have been named the "Hush No. 1" and the "Hush No. 2."

Today We Celebrate

Jews Fast on Annual Feast of Ab.

Hebrews of this city will begin this evening the annual feast of Ab, in commemoration of the burning of the temple in Jerusalem by the soldiers of Titus. This tragedy, which spelled political ruin for the Jewish nation, and marked the end of Jewish nationality, is the inspiration of an impressive and solemn religious ceremony in synagogues all over the world. The Jews of this city will observe the ninth of Ab by collecting funds for the war stricken co-religionists in Palestine, as well as to forward the movement for re-establishing the Jewish center at Babel. The great Jewish war has brought suffering and sorrow to millions of Jews, there is also a feeling among them that the titanic conflict of the great powers will in the end bring about the realization of their dream. The restoration of Palestine to the Jews is not considered unlikely when the readjustment of the affairs of the world comes with the restoration of peace. The grasp of Turkey upon the ancient land of the Hebrews will no doubt be loosened and it is certain that the return of the country to its historic owners would meet with universal approval.

Few of the cities of the world have suffered as much from sieges and wars as has Jerusalem. Since the Israelites took the city from the Jebusites, and David set up his capital on Mount Zion, the holy city has many times been plundered and pillaged. In 971, B.C., it was taken by the king of Egypt, who looted the temple of its treasures. It was subsequently conquered and pillaged by King Joashah. In the sixth century B.C. the city was twice besieged, and taken by Nebuchadnezzar the Babylonian conqueror. The second siege lasted three years, and on its termination the victors applied the torch to the temple and palaces, and carried away Zedekiah, the last king of the house of David, and many of his people.

After a long period of Persian rule the Egyptians again appeared before the walls of Jerusalem. Ptolemy, ruler of Egypt on that occasion, for the defenders of the city refused to fight because it was Sabbath and Ptolemy gave an easy victory and plundered the city. The Syrians were next masters of Jerusalem, and in 109 B.C. Antiochus the Syrian, defiled the temple and prohibited the Jewish worship. When, in 63, B.C., came the Roman of Pompey, he razed the temple to the ground, and in 66 A.D. the insurgents took the city and routed the Roman army. Retribution was swift and terrible. Jerusalem was laid waste, and the Jews were taken and re-taken in turn by the Romans, the Persians, the Crusaders and the Saracens, only to fall into the hands of the Turks.
